DETAILED ACTION

1. This communication is in response to amendment filed 1/13/04.

Response to Amendment

2. Claim 1 and the Specification have been amended per request

Response to Arguments

3. In response to the amendment of claim 1, the 35 USC 101 rejection of claims 1-24 as being not within technological art has been withdrawn. However, is noted that this amendment introduces new matter in the claim and that the claim amendment as presented renders the claim indefinite as explained in the following paragraphs.

Statute Cited in Prior Action

4. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

5. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35

U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Art Unit: 3624

6. Claims 1-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

7. Claim 1 recites limitation "completing sales in the primary auction based on results in the secondary auctions thereby establishing and maximizing the sales price of said generic set of fungible items as an independent function of sales prices of the second set of fungible items using the computer".

The specification fails to provide enabling disclosure in full, clear, concise, and exact terms, how the recited functions are carried out using a computer as claimed. The processes of conducting primary auction and secondary auctions for the sale of set of fungible items and completing sales in the primary auction based on sales results in the secondary auction would require employment of electronic networks and computerized model far more complex than an ordinary skilled artisan would contemplate. The specification is void of any teaching of computerized process as required to make and use the claimed invention and accordingly the claims are rejected as failing to meet the written description of the invention requirement.

Dependent claims also inherit defect(s) of claim 1 and are accordingly rejected for same reasons.

8. Claims 1-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.
9. Claim 1 recites the limitation "using the computer" in line 11. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
